

The laundromat's unique layout offers a playground of light and shadow. Sonam's graceful movements through this varied illumination - from the harsh fluorescents to softer, secluded corners - create a natural showcase for the Zoya jewels. This organic interplay of light adds depth and spontaneity to the sequence, enhancing its candid charm without forced staging

